Article 3: Without prejudice to the regulatory and legal provisions in force, it is mandatory to respect good manufacturing practices and good sanitary practices in the manufacture of food preparations similar to cheese to ensure the safety and quality of the product. For example, establishments that manufacture and process and package cheese-like food preparations must have veterinary sanitary approval in accordance with the regulations in force.
Article 4: The products covered by this Order must comply with the legislative and regulatory provisions in force concerning, in particular, the general conditions of hygiene and food safety, microbiological characteristics, food additives, pesticide and veterinary drug residues, contaminants, packaging and packaging and labeling of prepackaged foods and metrological control over prepackaged products.

Article 5: It is allowed to mention the nature of the cheese used in the labeling, if its percentage in the composition of the product is not lower than that indicated in the Order of the Ministers of the Trade and Crafts, Public Health, Industry, Energy and Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises of September 3, 2008, on the labeling and presentation of prepacked foods.

The labeling of cheese preparations may contain images of cheeses or other images related to dairy products.

Article 6: It is forbidden to use cheese images or other images related to dairy products in the labeling of food preparations.

Article 7: The labeling must mention the name "food preparation" or "cheese preparation" on the front of the packaging, alone and in large letters and clearly visible to the consumer and on a space at least 10% of the total space of the main face of the packaging. And it is forbidden to hide them totally or partially by images or information.

Article 8: Labeling must mention the type and percentage of vegetable fat used in the list of ingredients of cheese preparations and food preparations.

Article 9: It is forbidden to present for sale food preparations similar to unpackaged cheeses.

Article 10: Food preparation and processing establishments using food preparations must inform the consumer of the true nature of these cheese-like products used in a prominent manner with stickers or posters.

Article 11: Infringements of the provisions of this Order are recorded, prosecuted and repressed in accordance with the provisions of Law No. 92-117 of December 7, 1992, relating to the protection of the consumer.

Article 12: This Order comes into force after six months of its publication in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Tunisia.
